Cholera Spreading.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.
MADRID, June 15.—The cholera is spreading westward along the Mediterranean. There are several cases in Genoa, Alicante and Cartagena. Twelve thousand persons left Madrid during the past week in consequence of the cholera scare. The epidemic is increasing.

ALARMING.

MADRID, June 15.—At Castellon yesterday 111 new cases of cholera and 36 deaths were reported, and at Cartagena 214 new cases and 60 deaths were reported. The people have become very much alarmed.

A Severe Storm.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.
OMAHA, June 15.—A severe storm with wind and rain struck the city yesterday. The storm along the Pacific was particularly severe and a great deal of damage was done for a distance of fifty miles. Along the Nebraska railway in the south part of the state there was great damage, many buildings being wrecked.

Crop Prospects.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.
MINNEAPOLIS, June 15.—Reports have been received from over 800 points in Minnesota and Dakota, covering every shred growing county of importance, and from 200 points in northern Wisconsin and Iowa; 155 reports say the condition now is good; 135 better than last year at this time; 115 10 per cent. better; fifty poor; thirty-five not as good as last year and twenty say from 10 to 15 per cent. worse. The bad reports are from old counties where the ground is weedy and where the wheat was sown late.

Shot Himself.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.
PITTSBURGH, June 15.—Harry L. Mc-Geary, a wealthy young man of this city, committed suicide this morning by shooting himself through the head. Mc-Geary was the defendant in a will case which was decided against him last week and the verdict so preyed on his mind that it gave way, and he ended his troubles by shooting himself. He is the third member of the family which has committed suicide, his father and one brother having died the same way.

Stabbed to Death.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.
OWENSON, Ky., June 15.—Yesterday at Hender, seven miles from here, Robert Coleman and Henry Reynolds, returning with a quantity of whisky, quarreled when near home, and Coleman was stabbed to death. Both men have large families in a helpless condition. The men were good friends when sober.

General Grant.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.
NEW YORK, June 15.—When Dr.
Douglas left General Grant this morning.
He said the general had passed a comparatively good night and though his voice is very husky, the fact did not inconvenience the patient. Arrangements for his departure to Saratoga tomorrow morning are being made to-day.

Maxwell Arrested.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.
SAN FRANCISCO, June 15.—The arrest of Walter H. Lennox Maxwell, the mur-derer of Charles A. Preller, in the Southern hotel, at St. Louis, is announced here. Articles were found on him to connect him with the crime.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.
BUTTERSBURG, Pa., June 15.—Yester-

Sullivan vs. Burke.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.
CHICAGO, June 15.—The grand stand at the driving park and about 250 carriage contained over 12,000 persons at 6:14 o'clock afternoon, when Jack Burke, the "Irish Lad," weight 170 pounds, entered the ring to fight John L. Sullivan, weight 237 pounds, for five rounds, Marquis of Queensbury rules. Previous to the event of the day a mixed program of wrestling and sparring had been given, and the crowd was somewhat excited over some bloodshed drawn from a surprised middleweight from Bloomington by a wiry little chap introduced as Tommy Warren, ex-feather-weight champion of the Pacific coast.

The appearance of the champion was the signal for an exhibition of enthusiasm, but when the "Irish Lad" walked jauntily down the track the crowd arose as one man and cheered.
Some little time was lost in arranging the preliminaries and in selecting the referee, Herman Thurston. In the meantime sight of the champion lunging indifferently in his corner and looking like a giant compared with his opponent, induced a number of persons to shout Burke to "Keep up your heart, my boy, and you'll knock him out."

At 6:25 time was called and the champion smiled as he shook hands with the little man in front of him and looked as though he would laugh when the latter danced back a step or two and made a feint suggestive of a meditated left hander. He became slightly more serious a moment later when Burke, cleverly dodging a dangerous right hander, hit the champion a rattling blow on the chin with his left. Almost instantly Burke was dealt a heavy blow on the back of his neck, which brought him to his knees, and left a red mark that is there yet.
Before the close of the first round Burke was wildly applauded on account of general clever hits on Sullivan's face, while in the act of dodging blows that would have felled an ox.

In the second round Sullivan began to realize that his opponent possessed an amount of nerve, dexterity and science that would make up for a great deal that he lacked in weight, but closed, however, without any notable advantage having been gained by either, except for some more of Burke's left hand work on the champion's face during the latter's recovery from several terrific lunges.

The third round was uneventful. At the beginning of the fourth, however, it was apparent that the champion had decided that the fifth round would be superfluous, though Burke was never squaredly knocked down, he was four times forced against the ropes and three times fell on his hands and knees.
Sullivan forced the fighting and his blows became so wicked that the referee and "Parson" Davies, master of ceremonies, began to look as if they smelled blood. When the men retired to their corners it was evident that of the two the champion was the worst wounded.

In the last round Burke got in two of his best licks on Sullivan's neck and jaw, but their effect would not have been less noticeable had they been exerted on a brick wall. The champion forced the fighting in the fourth round, and though a number of times he had Burke against the ropes and on his knees, he was unable to get in a single effective blow, and the match was decided in his favor, owing to the fact that all knockdowns, such as they were, were on his side. Otherwise the points were evenly equally divided.

Desperadoes Captured.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.
LITTLE ROCK, June 15.—In Lafayette county, Sheriff Conry and posse have captured a band of desperadoes who for a long time, have been operating in that and adjoining counties. They recently murdered a negro named Richards. Other persons have been robbed and killed. Two of the outlaws are reported to have been killed by the posse and it is expected that those captured will be taken from the officers and lynched.

The county commissioners will adjourn Wednesday.

The Late Government a Failure.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.
LONDON, June 15.—The Times continues to condemn the late government.
The daily Telegraph says the marquis of Salisbury will have the sympathy of the country, and warns the radical leaders, Mr. Chamberlain and Sir Charles Dilke not to make the mistake of obstruction of elections in the provinces, but to see fair play.
The marquis of Salisbury has decided to form a conservative ministry, and is in active negotiation with Sir Stafford Northcote, the duke of Richmond, Lord Lawton, Mr. Rowland Winn, member of parliament for North Lincolnshire, and Edward Stanhope, member of parliament for middle Lincolnshire.

IN LONDON.

LONDON, June 15.—The Marquis of Salisbury is in London to-day conferring with leading conservatives, including Lord Randolph Churchill.

MR. CHAMBERLAIN.

LONDON, June 15.—The Times has an editorial to-day in which it ridicules Mr. Chamberlain's comparison of England and America on the simple question of the tariff.

Another Defalcation.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.
VIENNA, June 15.—Another defalcation has been discovered in the Vienna Deposit bank. The culprit is chief of the bill department and the amount of the defalcation is $25,000.

Admiral Courbet Dead.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.
PAIS, June 15.—An official dispatch, just received, announces the death of French Admiral Courbet on board his flagship, in the China sea.

"Irregularities" Discovered.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.
PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—The investigation made by the officers and directors of the Central transportation company shows that there has been an over-issue of stock amounting to 3,000 shares and that the stock has been marketed at from 21 to 44 per share.
The fraudulent issue is alleged to have been made by Joseph F. Cottinger, formerly secretary and treasurer of the company.

It is stated that his plan was to operate on certificates coming to the office for transfer and he would raise the certificate from 16 to 100 shares, divide it up into several parts and market the surplus. An authoritative statement was made this afternoon by President John S. Stevens, of the Central transportation company, who says that the discrepancies were discovered about three weeks ago, when an expert was put to work on the books. Lawyers were engaged to make a search with a view of ascertaining whether Cottinger had any property. They learned that he had not. He is understood to be on a fishing excursion on the Schuylkill, and defective agents are in search of him. The president also says that should the over-issue prove to be as bad as the examination, it cannot amount to 10 per cent. of the total stock of the company, and would therefore only effect the present value of stock to the amount of $3 per share. It has been selling steadily for $20, and therefore should not go below $27, if the stockholders do not get frightened.

The attorneys are now, at the request of the board of directors, preparing a plan to submit to them, showing the best way of disposing of the surplus fund and dividing the same among the stockholders at an early date. The Central Transportation Company is closely connected with the Pullman Palace Car Company. The meeting of the stockholders here on March 18, was held for the purpose of considering a modified lease with the Pullman company. The modified lease gave a cash dividend of 3 per cent. The first lease was executed when the Pullman palace car company was yet in its infancy. The company desired to secure an eastern outlet over the Pennsylvania and other roads, and offered to give the Central transportation company, in return for its sleeping cars and its contracts, a guaranteed 12 per cent. on its capital stock for 20 years. The capital stock of the company amounts to 41,000 shares at $50 per share, or $2,050,000, and this would give the stockholders an annual income of $244,000.

The Pullman company reserved the right to abrogate the lease if it failed to make $264,000 from the contracts of the transportation company. The Central transportation company has always been regarded as a flourishing corporation. The assets comprise government bonds, valued at $670,000, and 110 sleeping cars.

LATENT.—Cottinger was arrested tonight at Bushkill, near the Water Gap.
He will be brought here on Monday.

Not Glanders.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.
MONTREAL, June 15.—Dr. Berry, acting medical health officer, and Dr.
Baker, United States deputy government inspector of animals, have investigated the case of so-called glanders here. The cases are simply ordinary inflammation and swelling of the glands of the throat, such as is found in strumous children and have nothing in common with glander disease.

JACK SULLIVAN.

The Champion Slugger Arrives
Here on a Glorious Spree—His Version of the Chicago Fight.

Attached to east bound Pittsburg passenger train No. 8, last evening, was the luxurious Pullman palace car "Midway." In the coach John L. Sullivan was sleeping off a big "drunk." Although his arrival was not publicly heralded, about 200 people gathered at the depot and eagerly gazed at the car that carried the Boston slugger. There were eight people in the party, including Pat Sheely, Patay Sheppard, his trainer, Nobly Clark and W. E. Harding, sporting editor of Fox's Police Gazette. Through Mr.
Harding's kindness representatives of THE SENTINEL and GAZETTE were permitted to talk to the pugilist, who lay on his couch early, worn and wicked.
Not a scratch was on his face, and in reply to a question he gruffly said "Burke couldn't touch me if I hadn't been husking." He looked what he said and was demanding whisky, which his friends had hidden from him. Nobly Clark and the others took supper at the Mo-Kimmie house. Mr. Sullivan contenting himself with fond recollections of the bottle. The slugger made $4,000 out of his five rounds with Jack Burke. The party stop at Philadelphia.

SABBATH PLEASURES.

Bob Smith Runs a Thirteen Car Excursion Train from Bush-ville—The Concert.

The first Sunday excursion of the season came in yesterday over the Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville, or "Muncie route." Thirteen cars were crowded and some pretty hard looking citizens were in the party. There was something of a kick all along the line.
The advance bills read "Fort to Fort Wayne $1," or fifty cents, as the distance might warrant, "and twenty-five cents admission to the concert." People had to buy a railroad ticket and concert coupon together, making the fare $1.25, and so on down as the distance diminished. Many people did not intend to go to the concert and refusal to pay the twenty-five cents additional.
At Bushville 100 people returned home and at other stations as many more refused to be forced. The party came here at noon and hustled out to the beer garden, where the City band, Bencke's orchestra and Professor Innes gave a concert to an immense assembly. Professor Innes gave but two selections.
There were no fights at the Tivoli, but beer went down as fast as fifty men could hand it out. The finale found many people uncomfortably tipsy, and then closed the Sabbath sport which netted Mr.
Smith $100, Mr. Nussbaum $50 and Mr.
Cedivire as much more.

It may be all right to "work the suckers from the south," as one fellow put it, but it is dead wrong to do it on Sunday. The business might have a million of money in Fort Wayne, but The Sentinel cannot countenance the work because it violates the law, is unchristian like and will wind up in murder if the authorities do not stop it. There are six days in the week for this business, the seventh is for a higher and nobler purpose.

All is Amiable.

This morning Jerry Hillegas, the retiring superintendent of education, handled the books and records of his office to George F. Feltz, his successor. This ends all legal controversy and settlement feeling that may have existed between the gentlemen. Mr. Hillegas tells us he will travel for a look home. The Sentinel wishes Mr. Feltz well in his official career and hopes his administration may be successful.

The Latest from Washington.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.
WASHINGTON, June 15.—Commissioner Mann summoned to his office this morning the entire force of the state Bureau of the agricultural department, numbering twenty-one persons of both sexes, and announced that there would remain no money to pay their salaries after the 20th instant. All were furloughed without pay from the 20th instant until the 1st of July.

The president made these appointments: John W. Twigg, of California, assayer of the mint of the United States at San Francisco; Thomas J. Uppriser of merchandise for the district of San Francisco; Daniel Z. Yost, assistant appraiser of merchandise at San Francisco; Joseph E. Shaffer, assistant surgeon in the navy.

The president appointed the following presidential postmasters: Jacob J. Zeller, Ottawa, Ohio; vice T. D. Campbell, resigned; James B. Marks, Danville, Ky.; vice J. S. Jaimy, resigned.

The postmasters at Frederickburg, Va.; Decatur, Iowa; Waukan, Wis.; Pawia, Ill.; Charlotte, N. C.; Salinburg, N. C.; Concord, N. H.; and Dallas, Texas, were suspended for partnership upon proof. The postmaster at Rocksistant postmaster.

AT $20,000

The Peace of Chicago is Cheap.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.
CHICAGO, June 15.—Rev. A. E. Mattridge, in the Third Presbyterian church last night, stated that this was the first time that the people who were looking for Sabbath reform were going to the right place—not to the mayor, but to the courts of the state. If the fight against Sabbath violation cost $20,000, the purchase of peace for the city at that figure would be a low price. Dr. Mattridge alluded to the contest which will be begun this week in the civil courts against horse racing on Sunday. The West Division Horse Car company and the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad refused to run extra Sunday trains to the driving park for the benefit of the race track owners.

Mat Glynne Arrested.

Yesterday morning Sheriff Nelson brought to this city Leoben Berdey, a Seipio township farmer, who is charged in a grand jury indictment with stealing sheep. The young man's father-in-law went on his bond for $500 and he was released.

This morning the sheriff arrested Matthias Glynne, the well known lively stable man, on an indictment charging him with keeping a disorderly house. Mr.
Glynne rents his building to women who are unchaste.

There are indictments against men for assaulting non-union workmen at the Kerr Murray foundry, but arrests have not been made.

They Said "Guilty."

James Hartley, the fellow who recently sold a team of horses and load of wool, the property of Mr. Vaughn, a farmer, was arraigned before Judge O'Rourke.
Prosecutor Dawson stood before the man with an indictment, and he said: "Judge, I am guilty." The judge made it one year in the penitentiary and Hartley bowed his thanks.

William McKee, the fellow who snatched a watch from a passenger at the south depot Friday night, said, "I did it" and got thirty days in jail. Officer Rohle arrested the thief. Hartley and McKee were chained together.

Fractured His Leg.

William Moran, the ice man, and Charles Cope, an employe of his, got into a difficulty yesterday and in the fracas Moran fractured one of his legs.
This closed the fun and Mr. Moran and a doctor engaged each other's attention the rest of the day.

Some despicable wretch besmeared the iron fence around the residence of Congressman John Mohr, Saturday night. The act was undoubtedly inspired by Mr. Mohr's advocacy of the now famous cow ordinance. Such work as this will prompt the officers to enforce the law with relentless severity. Mr. Mohr is at Cincinnati and has not been apprised of the outrage, which the police now are investigating.

The following is clipped from an arti-cle published in the Chicago Indicator, by Prof. H. S. Perkins, the eminent musician and conductor of Chicago: "By the way, I wish all docters as to the utility of having music methodically taught in all of the public schools could visit the schools of Fort Wayne, Ind., and hear the children, as taught by W. F. Heath, sing at first sight. No argu-ment would be required. The results would be convincing. All that is need-ed is the skillful and thorough experi-ence of a pushing teacher."

Mrs. Charles P. Wise and daughter, of Chicago, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Platt J. Wise.

There was a picnic at the Apple Or-chard yesterday. These places are en-tirely too numerous to fresh.

The attendance at the Railroad Young Men's Christian association reading rooms last week numbered 1,480.

Judge Walter Olds arrived in the city to-day and resumed his hearing of the Hayden-Hanna case in the superior court.

Mrs. Feltner wishes the ladies of the dinner and supper committee to meet at the Academy to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

The solicitors for the City Hospital fair will please send in their reports to to-morrow morning. This is very im-portant.

The young people of the Wayne street M. E. church had a nice excursion party to Rome City this morning, despite the weather.

The promoters of the veteran re-nion met again yesterday afternoon and further perfected arrangements for the great gathering of old soldiers.

W. P. Cooper will accompany the G. A. R. excursion to Portland. Gert Shober will do local work on the Journal during Mr. Cooper's absence.

Kids about town are doing the law-act, a la Buffalo Bill. Yesterday they caught a little girl and dragged her some distance. Officer Wahrenburg led the vicious boys home and had them chastised.

The indications for the lower lake re-gion, as reported by the weather bureau at Washington to THE SENTINEL, are as follows: Local rains, winds shifting to westerly, stationary followed by a slight fall in temperature.

Auditor Griebel and Treasurer Dal-man submitted their reports to the county commissioners Saturday and the statements were approved. The com-missioners likewise submitted a report of their management of the school fund to the state auditor.

Eleven drunkards were before the mayor this morning. Samuel Paffen-berger, of Bluffton, and Wesley Maddux, of Montpelier, were excused.

The others are Fort Wayne people of the plain drunk variety and unimportant. They all went to jail.

While coming from the Catholic com-edy yesterday afternoon, a horse-driven by Mr. Tim Hogen was stricken with a fatal swelling at the river bridge. Mr. Hogen thought to leave the animal at Mat Glyn's livery stable. Just at the door of the stable the horse dropped dead.

The Cincinnati Enquirer, of yesterday, prints a picture of our Jim Rice, auditor of state. It is worse than the New York Sun's picture of Hon. W. S. Holman, and unless Mr. Rice publicly repudiates the slander on his handsome face, his lady friends, at least, will want to know why. Even Judge Sinclair is enraged at the Enquirer's audacity.

The railroad men and their families living in Bloomington are cordially in-vited to attend a meeting in their inter-est under the auspices of the Railroad Young Men's Christian association, on Tuesday evening, at 7:30 standard time, at the Bloomington M. E. church. Railroad Secretary D. F. Moore will give a talk subject: "The Voice of God from the Railroad Train."

The Girls had a Mill.

Lena Slagle and Ida Straus surround-ed considerable picnic lagers yesterday and when they met on Main street last night false hair and temporary bangs flew. There is an old feud between the parties and they smashed each other right and left, and when Lieutenant Witham came up the girls were in the ditch with Lena on top.

The Slagle woman was bailed out by a young fellow, but Miss Straus, whose papa lives at Garrett City, slept on chairs in the cor-ridor of the cooler. They paid from this morning.

MUSICAL CICADAS.

The Seventeen-Year Locusts An-nounce Their Advent in Mil-lion Strong—Tender Twigs the Scene of their Work.

The so-called seventeen-year locusts, or cicadas, as they properly are, have made their appearance in the forests and shady orchards hereabouts a million strong. Lindenwood cemetery is cov-ered with them, and they are thickly in-habit other woodlands, orchards and shady patches throughout the city and country. So far they are harmless, save the destruction to foliage where eggs are deposited. Sometimes, however, they are attended by an enemy known as the digger wasp, which is fatal to the locust, and the sting of which will kill a human being in two hours.

During the locust period of 1868 is recorded the stinging, fatally and otherwise, of several persons, which was attributed to the locusts, but which was really done by the wasp at-tached to the locust. The locusts first come in the pupa or soft state, but in a short time become fully fledged. About the middle of May they begin to lay their eggs, which are deposited in the tender twigs of trees. As soon as the young attain their growth in the grub state they fall to the ground and make their way two or three feet under the surface, in order to undergo their change into the pupa form, after which last transformation they are found in great numbers over large districts of country.

It is claimed that experiment has demon-strated they never descend further than six feet into the earth, and that the eggs must come in contact with the earth before they advance toward life. It will be seventeen years before the young of the locusts which now begin to sing will reappear from their hiding places in the earth. Generally the locusts prefer the woods and shady places and not the open fields. Notwithstanding the common idea that they are injurious to vegeta-tion, it appears from high authority that they are not so, except from the damage done by the female in depositing her eggs. Locusts are a favorite food of hogs, squirrels, and some of the larger birds, and are a favorite dish of the Indians when fried.

Generally these insects begin to leave the ground about May 20, and increase in numbers until May 27, when the greatest numbers will appear, and then in less numbers till about June 5, when no more will leave the earth. About June 15 they commence depositing their eggs, which continues till about June 20. The female lays about 400 eggs, ex-cavating holes for that purpose in the limbs of twigs, to which they are attach-ed by a singularly constructed instru-ment, about the size of a small pin, de-signated as the ovipositor. About June 25 the old locusts disappear altogether. About July 25 the eggs are ready to hatch, the insects come out of the ex-cavations and fall to the ground in great numbers, and are so small that they are like little motes in the air, and their ap-parent specific gravity so inferior that they are not injured by the fall. Hav-ing made its way into the earth, it lives during the remainder of the warm season in the vegetable sub-soil, and on the approach of cold weather forms around itself a cocoon or cell, by cementing the particles of locusts together, in which condition the locusts are often dug up in gardening and excavating without their character being discovered. The next season it opens one end of its cell to gain access to the small roots and moist earth, but does not leave its cell, and thus it continues from season to season, each year enlarging its cell, never changing its locality from the time it enters the earth until it emerges.

An inspection of the earth will disclose the exit hole of the locusts. Sparrows feed on them with great relish or ven-geance, because the peculiar hum which the locusts keep up from sun rise to sun set annoys the little sparrow. The lo-custs appeared in this state in 1857 and 1868. The locust and cicada both be-long to the order Hemiptera, but the former belongs to the sub-order Orthoptera, the latter to the sub-order Hemiptera. As to their capability of injury it is very limited. As to their mouth, it is but a short horny beak, that may be elevated or depressed at the insect's pleasure. It has no jaws.

It is interesting to note the manner in which the insect emerges from the shell. In the evening in suitable places for ob-servation, they may be seen to ascend by thousands, fix themselves to twigs, trees or some other object, become motionless and, in a few minutes, the back splits open and the insect comes out a creamy open and a creamy white, with its wings folded up. In a short time the wings unfold and begin to darken, and soon the whole insect attains its perfect color and is ready to fly and begin its monotonous murmur.

The over credulous have imagined these insects to be the pests that plagued the Egyptians, and hear them in their cry repeat the name "Pharaoh," and upon their wings is a "W" foretelling ing war.

Katie Putnam Married.

Miss Katie Putnam, the clever little sourette, was last week married to H.

R. Emory, a member of her company at Chicago. Miss Putnam has attained the mature age of 30 years, and ten or fifteen years ago was a favorite in Fort Wayne. She used to play at Colerick's opera house then and her visits here were both frequent and pleasant. J. W. Henderson, a former business man-ager of THE SENTINEL under his brother-in-law, R. D. Dunn, was Miss Katie's lover and always tendered the actress a reception here. Later Mr. Henderson traveled with her company, but never won her hand, if he did his heart. Mr. Henderson is now a resident of Ohio.

AROUND THE WORLD.

Lewis Johnson, a Nobleman, Hazards the Tour with the "Silver King" Party.

The "Silver King" company, now in the city, boasts of quite a distinguished personage among its ranks, in Mr. Lewis Johnson, who plays the part of Table, the landlord of "Whend Sheel." Peo-ple who have seen Mr. Johnson on the street and been attracted by his foreign manner have remarked that he was no ordinary individual. Mr. Johnson is the son of a German nobleman, who a few years ago was attached to the Ger-man embassy at Washington. He re-signed his position two years since and has been living in retirement. Two months ago having business in this country, the father came to New York, bringing with him his son, Lewis. The young man later became acquainted with Mr. Kume, the manager of the "Silver King," and on learning from the latter that this company was going to the Pacific coast via the Northern Pacific road, ex-pressed a desire to accompany them and see the country. Mr. Kume laughingly told him he might go, if he would play a small part. Johnson agreed, managed to gain his father's consent and became an "actor." He says he will probably sever his connection with the company at San Francisco and return home via China, when he will have encircled the globe, and will be able to boast that he was one of the lights—if not leading ones—of Harry Miner's "Silver King" com-pany, during its tour across the American continent.

A Murderous Whim.

Charles Darst, who lives in a hut on Chicago street, was in a murderous rage yesterday and wanted to kill his wife. He is an old man and nearly blind, but for that THE SENTINEL might record a murder. He struck at his wife with a club, but his arm being defective, the weapon missed her skull and fell on her shoulder, almost paralyzing her right arm. Sheriff Nelson arrested the man at the instance of Trustee Gaffney, to whom the wife appealed.

This afternoon Mr. Darst was declared insane and will be sent to the state asy-lum. He has long been supported by the township.

"Silver King."

The "Silver King" company is in the city and all their splendid scenery is at the Temple. To-night and to-morrow night the picturesque play will be given.

The circuit jury is called for Wednes-day. The superior court jury is called for the same date.

TWO FAIRS.

The Festivals at Library Hall and the Academy.

The strawberry festival and bazaar at Catholic Library hall will continue this week and attract great crowds. The voting on the smoking suit for the most popular young married man will be spirited. The "Battle of Gettysburg" and comic art gallery are attractive features of the fair.

The City Hospital fair opens to-night at the Academy of Music, and the build-ing is tastily decorated and festooned for the occasion. This is for a worthy pur-pose and will be well patronized.

A Slight Decrease in Shipments.

The shipments of flour, grain and pro-visions from Chicago to eastern through stations by the pool lines during the week ending Saturday, June 13, amount-ed to 42,646 tons, against 43,083 tons, during the preceding week, an increase of 437 tons. Shipments of flour de creased 1,737 tons, those of grain increased 368, while those of provisions increased 132 tons. The Pittsburg road carried 5,402 tons, and the Nickel Plate, 4,885.

Poor Toledo.

The Toledo baseball club formally dis-banded Saturday. Most of the players have accepted offers in other cities. Stemmeyer and Cook are likely to go to the Metropolitans, though they have an offer from Chicago. Faatz, Koons, McArthur and Hauns will go to Syracuse, Wright to Oswego, Sexton to Trenton, Morrison to Buffalo, and Rainy to Ham-ilton, Ont.

Arrested for Larceny.

Jennie S. Manning filed an affidavit in Justice Ryan's court, charging Minnie Potter, a domestic at the residence of J. Fisher, with stealing $18 from her June 5, now just. The women were at Thomp-son's restaurant at the time. The parties were taken to court this morning and quite a crowd assembled to see them.

Everybody should go to the hospital fair.

The St. Peter's young men's sodality will have an excursion to Rome City June 18. Everybody is invited to at-tend. 15-3t
